

Fiserv Again Named One of FORTUNE Magazine's World's Most Admired Companies

February 19, 2016

Recognized for leadership in innovation, long-term investment value and people management

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV) has been named to FORTUNE® magazine's 2016 list of World's Most Admired Companies. This marks the third consecutive year the company, a leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, has been named to the list.

Fiserv serves 13,000 clients worldwide, including financial institutions ranging from the largest banks to neighborhood financial institutions.

"At Fiserv, we help clients deliver financial services experiences that enable the movement and management of money at the speed of life," said Jeffery Yabuki, President and Chief Executive Officer, Fiserv. "We are humbled to be recognized among some of the best companies in the world. I couldn't be more proud of our more than 21,000 associates worldwide who are committed to serving our clients with distinction every day."

The annual FORTUNE World's Most Admired Companies list is a definitive benchmark of corporate reputation. Thousands of executives, directors and analysts are surveyed to create the list. Survey respondents are asked to rate companies based on nine criteria including innovation, people management, use of corporate assets, social responsibility, quality of management, financial soundness, long-term investment value, quality of products or services, and global competitiveness.

This year, Fiserv ranked at the top of its category for innovation, followed by long-term investment value and people management, reflecting leadership as an innovator and expert in fintech, as well as the company's focus on creating value for clients, associates and shareholders.
