IPS-Sendero Unit of Fiserv Hosts Path 2005 Conference in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Event to Focus on Risk, Profitability and Mortgage Servicing for Financial Institutions

ATLANTA--May 23, 2005--IPS-Sendero, a unit of Fiserv, Inc. (Nasdaq: FISV), and a provider of technology solutions and education for strategic balance sheet, profitability and corporate performance management, is hosting its annual Path 2005 Conference this week in Scottsdale, Ariz. The conference theme is "Accelerating Performance" and will focus on risk, profitability and compliance issues facing U.S. financial institutions.

Ian Percy, organizational psychologist and author of The Secrets to a Life of Meaning, will be the event's headline presenter. Other featured speakers will include Mark Sievwright, senior vice president of Fiserv, and executives of Deloitte and Touche, the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and Kamakura Corp. The event will offer attendees unique networking opportunities with financial services industry peers, industry leaders and IPS-Sendero professionals. Session topics will include accelerating customer profit growth, credit risk modeling, Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404 and modeling mortgage servicing.

"IPS-Sendero is proud to present this year's Path Conference as a valuable educational resource and networking opportunity for participants who are looking to expand their perspective and develop strategies and solutions to affect their organization's growth and profitability," said Dave Ulrich, president of IPS-Sendero. "The range of industry expertise and the quality and number of participants and sessions offered at Path 2005 make it the largest user conference in the world for risk and performance measurement."

Conference sessions are organized concurrently to provide participants with the opportunity to explore profitability, risk and mortgage servicing issues affecting their institutions. This year's conference will be held at the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort and Spa at Gainey Ranch. More information on the conference is available at www.ips-sendero.com/events.
