Fiserv Health Offers New Provider Network in Northeast and Southeast Wisconsin

Trilogy Health Networks and Fiserv Health Enter into Five Year Contract

BROOKFIELD, Wis., Feb 12, 2007 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Fiserv Health, a business group of Fiserv Inc. (NASDAQ:FISV), today announced an agreement with Trilogy Health Networks as the exclusive administrator of a new provider network featuring competitively discounted rates to self-funded employers in northeastern and southeastern Wisconsin. The network, created by Trilogy Health Insurance Inc., will be available by April 2007.

"Combining a strong network with our flexible service model gives employers a new and viable option for controlling health care costs while providing excellent health care to their plan members," said Jay Anliker, Fiserv Health Plan Services president. "Best of all, Fiserv Health and Trilogy are keeping health care local, which is what our clients and providers have been requesting."

"Our network was built upon long-standing relationships with health care providers and physicians who feel strongly about the benefits of local management and service," said Bill Felsing, Trilogy Health Insurance president and chief executive officer. "Providers know our reputation for quality and service and we are confident they will be eager to work with Fiserv Health, a company known for its responsiveness and common sense."

Trilogy Health Insurance also will sell fully insured health insurance featuring this network to small businesses beginning in April 2007. Management, customer service and medical underwriting will be provided locally from its Brookfield, Wis., headquarters. Fiserv Health will assist Trilogy by providing claims processing and additional administrative services through Avidyn Health, Innoviant Prescription Benefits Administration and ppoONE.

About Trilogy Health Insurance Inc.
