Fiserv's Mark Sievwright, Industry Thought Leader to Chair Two Leading Financial Conferences

BROOKFIELD, Wis., Mar 07, 2008 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Fiserv, Inc. Both conferences, Best Practices in Retail Financial Services Symposium and the Annual Branch Banking Symposium, will feature industry leading executives who will discuss the primary challenges and opportunities within the U.S. financial services industry.

Having chaired the Branch Banking Symposium each year since its inception in 2002, Sievwright has proven experience in the industry and can identify the important trends for clients and customers. His past four years at Fiserv have established him as a partner for our clients, someone who is looking out for their best interest. He knows the trends first hand, and we know our clients appreciate his guidance," said Tom Neill, Fiserv group president, depository institutions.

Speakers at the Annual Branch Banking Symposium, which will take place May 7-9 at the Loews Coronado Bay Resort, San Diego, California, include: Eskander Matta, senior vice president, Internet Service Group, Wells Fargo & Company; Terry Zink, executive vice president, Affiliate Administration Fifth Third Bancorp and President and chief executive officer, Fifth Third Bank, Chicago; Amy Hurd, senior vice president, In-Store regional manager, U.S. Bank; Linda Hunt, senior vice president, PFF Bank & Trust; Jerald Shaw, president and chief executive officer, Anchor Bank; and James McCormick, president & founder, and Gordon Goetzmann, executive vice president, of the First Manhattan Consulting Group.

"It is an honor for me and for Fiserv to be chairing two of the industry's leading financial services events," said Sievwright. "To have the opportunity to partner with SourceMedia for the sixth year in a row and be able to interact with so many leaders in financial services, at two truly first-class events, is a pleasure."
