SpotPay Mobile Payments Solution Featured in the WIRED Store in New York City

Located in Meatpacking District at 353 West 14TH Street, experiential pop-up celebrates the hottest in holiday gifting

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- This holiday season, WIRED, a Condé Nast brand, is bringing a unique retail experience to New York City. The highly anticipated annual WIRED Store features SpotPay™, a mobile payments solution for small businesses to accept card payments, in addition to the hottest electronics, rare objects d' art, apparel and accessories, musical instruments, kitchen gadgets, adventure gear, and much more. Located in the heart of the Meatpacking District, at 353 West 14th Street, the Store will run from December 4th through December 22nd, on Tuesday-Sunday from 12 p.m. to 8 p.m.

In its 9th year, WIRED will create the most memorable, interactive experience yet, with its theme, "Check It Out," inviting trend-setting consumers to touch, torque, twist and test the exclusive goods in the Store.

SpotPay from Fiserv is an anywhere, anytime mobile payments solution for small businesses that facilitates card acceptance of payments from a smartphone or tablet, providing fast, secure access to funds. In the WIRED Store, not only will consumers be able to see SpotPay in action, but also be able to sign up to use the solution for their small business. Consumers can also view the solution on the WIRED Store website at <http://store.wired.com/product?id=290>.

"We're proud to be participating in the WIRED pop-up store," said Rahul Gupta, group president, Digital Payment Solutions, Fiserv. "Being a part of the WIRED Store is a unique opportunity and we're excited to bring SpotPay to techies who love the magazine and non-techies who are curious about the store."

SpotPay and the larger collection will also be available for purchase on WIRED's Online Store, featuring comprehensive product details, images, how-to videos and purchase options.

"This year, the WIRED Store is more than a display of latest trends in technology and design," said WIRED VP and Publisher Howard Mittman. "The social retail experience serves as a vehicle for interaction and engagement with consumers and influencers, creating an opportunity for sponsors to amplify their brand with a powerful consumer."
