Fiserv VISION Presents at New Jersey League 100th Annual Convention

Brookfield, Wis., June 12, 2008 — Kathy Ligman, Assistant Vice President - Marketing for Fiserv VISION, presented at the 100th Annual Convention for the New Jersey League of Community Bankers in Southampton, Bermuda on May 30th. Her session, attended by over 60 members of the community bankers association, was entitled "The Future of Deposit Growth" and focused on new strategies community banks can implement in order to reach non-traditional consumers and increase core deposits. Ligman highlighted several areas of focus, including options for designing relationship banking packages, the importance of customer-centricity in choosing technology and implementing processes, and the role of Generation Y consumers in the convergence of social networking and personal financial management.
