ABA Endorses Technology Solutions from Fiserv

Substantial number of Fiserv products and services added to ABA's list of solutions offered to its members

WASHINGTON, Jun 03, 2008 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a leading provider of information technology services to the financial and insurance industries, and the American Bankers Association announced today ABA's endorsement of a range of Fiserv products and services.

Among the endorsed Fiserv choices is core account processing, which can be integrated with products and services to improve efficiencies, reduce risk and enhance banks' revenue generation. Other solutions endorsed are Fiserv's item and image processing, remote deposit, electronic funds transfer, loan origination, cash management, financial management, risk and security, and cash and logistics programs and services.

"We're pleased to endorse a vast array of Fiserv products and services," said John Wolff, president of the Corporation for American Banking. "The ABA endorsement signifies our confidence that the Fiserv products and services identified will deliver reliable and quality results in supporting the industry's needs."

The ABA and its affiliate, the Corporation for American Banking, conducted a review and analysis of the Fiserv solutions before choosing to endorse them. This evaluation looked at factors such as product functionality, regulatory compliance, management strength, financial soundness, client service and the company's long-term strategic positioning.

"Fiserv is pleased that the ABA has selected our products and services as deserving of its coveted seal of approval, and we look forward to working with them to continue to provide quality support to the banking industry," said Norm Balthasar, senior executive vice president Fiserv. "All of us within the Fiserv organization understand that a strategic, long-term relationship with a bank requires thought leadership, strong management, technology and a focus on high-quality products and services. We are committed to delivering that and more."

About ABA

The American Bankers Association brings together banks of all sizes and charters into one association. ABA works to enhance the competitiveness of the nation's banking industry and strengthen America's economy and communities. Its members - the majority of which are banks with less than $125 million in assets - represent over 95 percent of the industry's $13.3 trillion in assets and employ more than two million men and women.
